***************** SWAT THE FLY! IT'S A DEADLY PERIL.

The common housely is at once the test known of all insects and the Easily." most dangerous to mankind. One the carrying, as it can, millions of deadly harteria upon his person, may, and ir quently does, I ring the most terrible plegues in its flight, It is a gross dis citater of the germs of typhoid fever, dysentery, and tebercullusia

Millions are spent every year in fighting the at named distase. Public and private sanitariums for its prevention, treatment or cure exist is many places. The contagious character of the disease is now well known and path this steproperly. resoluted, but it is a fact that many thousands of vorting having tuberculosis is a mire or tess advanced stage still live with their task it s and do business with their associates as they did before the discover at acted them.

With many am h tie s; i ting habit, is common and communit. Wit cominal card saress they pursue this habit, and lo sincis, new warm proceeding to prevent the dangerous practice. B tween suce disease! persons and the otherwise healths' world, the fly is an able and perdstest spreader of tuberculesis germs. Feeding as it does on liquid and remi-liquid, diested matter, to which the germs luck, it moves off carrying the dangerous bacteria to the persons and homes of others.

Whatever it touches it contanim mates. It goes naturally to any food exposed to its flight to unscreen ed and unprotected houses, and should it alight but a few seconds upon what is to be eaten it may leave there germs enough to kill the Bedding Hyacinths, Dutch, 5c each, desire, but be sure to send see that his home is properly screen- see doz. ed. In spite of this precaution flies will invade houses. Should they do so no mercy must be shown them. They should be killed whenever found. There is no telling from whence they have come, but one thing is certain: they have come from no clean place. There is not one chance in a million that they have not come from a manure pile, a garbage can or a sick room.

And their heads and feet ars the most perfect collections of filth and germs ever devised. The former are provided with a profusion of bairs and bristles, while each of the six feet present even a better degree of collecting power.

"The Liver Pills act So Naturally and

Such a statement, coming from the cashier of a bank, shows what confidence responsible people have in these pills. Mr. A. L. Wilson after trying them wrote:

"I have used Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills and also your Anti-Pain Pills, on myself, with good results. The Liver Pills art so naturally and so easily that I scarcely know that I have taken a pill. Frequently being troubled with headachs I take a Anti-Pain Pill and set take an Anti-Palo Fill and get immediate relief in every case." A. I. Wilson, Sparta, Ill. Mr. Wilson was for a number of years cashier of the First National Bank of Sparta.
